Hello Valerie,

My husband Ted King and I are running a gravel cycling event on Aug 4 beginning and ending at the Cochran Ski Area in Richmond, VT. You can read all the details about the event here that we shared with our host town of Richmond and their Selectboard. We have approval from Starksboro, Ripton, Lincoln, Huntington and Richmond, but didn't realize we should've also sent this to Bristol!

Attached is a COI for our event Rooted Vermont as we pass through mostly dirt/gravel roads. We do have a number of DOT signs that say "Bicyclists on Roadway"--let me know if there's a preferred place to put them as we pass through, otherwise, we'll use our best judgement and also plan to alert the towns of our presence through Front Porch Forum and community boards.

Our event participants are instructed to follow ALL rules of the road. We designed the course to begin with a VERY steep hill and since it's a challenging course we expect the riders to very quickly be broken up. We have strict rules in place for any litter--riders are to pack it in or pack out or utilize aid stations to dispose of any wrappers or trash.

Here are our routes (45, and 85, the 45 is just a truncated version of the long route):

short: <https://ridewithgps.com/routes/30011120>
Long: <https://ridewithgps.com/routes/29430207>

Please let us know if the Selectboard has any questions. Thank you in advance!
