Whew!

Thank you, Bill. Shall I use this e-mail thread as your expression of interest, or would you like to prepare something more directly?

My intent is to resign from PC (been doing this since 2013) and newly formed DRB once there are enuf members to carry the load.....so, will continue with PC until DRB is formed. Once DRB is formed I will stay on as a DRB member if necessary.....if there are less than 7 DRB members I will continue with DRB until it reaches seven (not including me). So, you are right - - I will serve on DRB on a temporary basis until at least 7 member count is reached (not including me). HAPPY NEW YEAR.....bb

Oy. I'm still confused.

So, would you be interested in serving on the DRB only temporarily and would resign after it had at least 7 members? Or are you interested in serving on the DRB for the long haul and would stay on the PC to ensure it still had at least 7 members?

Good question....I plan to serve (if necessary) on the newly formed DRB until there are at least 7 DRB members. I hope this helps....bill b

Thank you, Bill, for the reply. Just to clarify: are you resigning from the PC with a plan to serve on the DRB, but you plan to stay with the PC to ensure there are at least 7 PC members?

Hi Bill,

I've heard from a couple people that you might be interested in serving on the Development Review Board. If so, can you send me a note or letter expressing interest? The Selectboard intends to continue making appointments at Monday's meeting.

Thanks! And Happy New Year,
