Hi Ben,

That's great! I will put this on the Selectboard's next agenda (4/25). You would not need to attend, but you would certainly be welcome.

Hi Valerie,

I heard at the Selectboard meeting tonight that there is a new vacancy on the Design Review Committee. If the Board would consider it, I'm still interested in serving on that committee. I understand if there are others who have applied or are interested that would be a better fit, and since I'm already on the Energy Committee I understand if it's inappropriate to serve on another committee. I also wouldn't want to take a spot from another candidate who is not on another committee.

Thanks,
Ben

Hi Benjamin,

I want to acknowledge receipt of your volunteer application—thank you! You expressed interest in serving on the Design Review Commission and the Energy Committee. According Bristol's Web site, there currently are no vacancies on the Design Review Commission; however, there appear to be two vacancies on the Energy Committee, each through March 2024.

The Selectboard's next meeting is Dec. 13, starting at 7:00pm. Would you be available to meet with them, either in person or via Zoom? Let me know your thoughts.

Thank you,

--Valerie
