Hi Valerie, After a good conversation, concerning housing, with Kevin Hanson and Bill Sayre, Kevin approached me about serving on the Planning Commission. I have given his suggestion a good bit of thought and decided I would serve if the Select Board would have me.

As a former Select Board member, I have experience with the town plan process. I was on the Board, back in the 80's, when the townspeople first established zoning with their vote. There was a challenge to the approval (via petition) so the townspeople approved the first time zoning rules a second time.

I have no agenda coming onto the Commission. If there is a matter I would be sensitive towards it would be housing. In the past Bristol has done a decent job of encouraging housing for working people. It would be my hope to continue this effort.
